

Slovak Republic

CYRIL KLEMENT

Name: Cyril Klement, MD, PhD

Title/Position: Head of the Medical Microbiology Department

Organisation: Regional Public Health Authority

Short biography:

Training:

Graduated at the Medical Faculty of Hygiene, Charles University, Prague, 1973

Postgraduate specialization in medical microbiology at the Postgraduate

Medical Institute, Bratislava - 1st Degree 1976, 2nd Degree 1979

Ph.D. Degree at Charles University, Prague, 1989

Postgraduate specialization in medical virology at the Postgraduate Medical Institute, Bratislava, 1992

Training Programme for UNMOVIC Inspectors, Paris, France, 2000

Clinical Training in Infectology, 1974 – 1976

Positions and roles:

Present - Head of the Department of Medical Microbiology; Head of the Information Centre for Bacteriological (Biological) and Toxin Weapons

Member of the delegation of Slovakia at the meetings Ad hoc group to the convention for prohibition development of bacteriological and toxin weapons, 1996

Representative of the ministry of health for the Slovak Republic for CBRN Euhsc C3 DG Sanco

Biological Expert Senior Civil Emergency Planning – Civil Protection committee, NATO HQ

(Representing the Ministry of Interior of the Slovak Republic)

Active part in the preparation of national law implementing BWC

Advisor for the clinical Microbiology of the Ministry of Health of the Slovak Republic 1994 – 2003

Advisor of the Hygienist General for Clinical Microbiology 2003

Head of the NRL for Whooping Cough, 1994

Member of the Scientific Board, Faculty of Health of the Slovak Medical University, 2006

Member of the working Group for immunization, National Contact Point for Biological Weapons

Member of the Scientific Board for the Faculty of Public Health, Slovak Medical University

National Microbiology Focal Point, ECDC, Stockholm

Member of the Slovak Medical Chamber

