

Dariusz Poznański

Deputy director of Department of Public Health in Ministry of Health of the Republic of Poland, master of public health. Supervises and cooperates with State Sanitary Inspection, largest public health organization responsible for infectious diseases control and environmental health. Co-author of current public health legislation in the Republic of Poland. Responsible for planning, executing and evaluating policies aimed at tackling non-communicable and infectious diseases, coordination of the implementation of the Act on public health, ordinance of Council of Ministers on the National Health Programme (NHP) and ordinance of Council of Ministers on the National Mental Health Protection Programme. Both programmes are cross-governmental and consist multi-stakeholder cooperation. They are aimed at improving healthy environments, including housing, the world of work, recreation and learning settings.

Other activities:

- Expert in Steering Group on Health Promotion, Disease Prevention and Management of Non-Communicable Diseases (European Commission)
- Expert in Social Determinants and Health Inequalities Expert Group (European Commission)
- Expert group on Economics of Public Health (OECD).
- Active member of Senior Policy Council (Ministry of Labour)
- Vice-president of Expert Group on Healthy Ageing (Ministry of Health)
- President of social council of 4 healthcare institutions
- Member of other numerous interministerial technical groups.

Author of publications (health system governance, health information systems, management and leadership in healthcare). Previously expert in areas of healthcare organization, financing and health information systems. Former member of Jagiellonian University in Cracow academic and project staff.